Bob Lawton Tops Skiers

1977
THE WEIRS—A crowd estimated at nearly 2,500 persons witnessed the final in the Lake Winnepesaukee water ski championships staged here Sunday afternoon.
Combined winner for trick and stunt riding and jumping was Bob Lawton, 20, of Lowell, Mass., who annexed 273 points over a field of 25 entries. Lawton won the men's senior competition last year. Second honors for combined events went to Moe Lambert of Lowell, 266 points, and third to Neil McIntyre of Milton, Mass., 235.
Spectacular skiing took place Sunday with all other events being run off Saturday. In the jumping Lawton came in first by two points over Edward Ahearn of Pendleton Beach. Lawton's jump total was 86 points against 84 for Ahearn. Lambert was third with 83 points. There were 13 entries.
Other winners: Girls' single trick and stunt riding, first, Harriet Forkey, Saunder's Bay, 46 points; second, Lorraine McDevitt, Lowell, 42; men's singles, first, Lawton, 187 points; second, McIntyre, 186; third, Lambert, 183; doubles, Lawton and McDevitt.
Trophies, provided by the Weirs Chamber of Commerce, were presented winners of the women's and the doubles and first and second places in the jump. Officials were Dana Jones and Bill Trudgeon.
